Beauseant Commandery of Knights Templars.

Instituted October 20th, 1886.

12TH REGULAR CONCLAVE

The Twenty-First Conclave of Beauseant Commandery of Knights Templars will be held at

Masonic Hall,

MONDAY, OCTOBER 24th, 1887,

at HALF-PAST SEVEN o'clock, to open a Commandery of Knights Templars.

Per order of

F. J. Foss
Eminent Com.

Chas. R. Magee
Recorder.

38 Bromfield St., Boston.

Malden, October 17, 1887.

Every Sir Knight will report promptly at SEVEN o'clock, in full Templar Regalia, white gloves, for rehearsal and drill for the Ceremonies of Constitution.

The Eminent Commander confidently relies on the devotion of every member to this Commandery to give his heartiest personal support to the laborious duties of Tuesday, that Beauseant Commandery may be honored, and the Grand Commandery justified in the trust about to be reposed in us.

Prompt attendance at this Conclave, and on Tuesday, October 25th, the notice for which is enclosed, is absolutely necessary, that the elaborate services of the day may be conducted without fatigue to our guests, and vexatious delays to our membership.
